

Please excuse this temporary place holder document.

My general assessment is that a few people working from smoky back rooms in the city are trying to do things that would make Von Oven no longer viable.

Please stay tuned here for more information.